To whom it might concern,

I, Ademario Iris da Silva Junio, declare that I am responsible for the English version of the article "RELATIVE IMPORTANCE AND INTERACTION OF ROASTING VARIABLES IN COFFEE ROASTING PROCESS", in which I am one of the co-authors. I have been working as a reviewer for several years. I had the opportunity of reviewing articles for Journal of Chromatography A, Bioanalysis, Brazilian Journal of Chromatography, Journal of Food Science and Current Chromatography. Besides I have lived in Australia for one year and returned from there less than a year ago – hence the way I expressed the date of today. I am fully aware that a good English writing is necessary for any scientific article. Thank you for your attention.

Kind regards,
